

Witnesses

- Witnesses may give testimony at the hearing to help prove your claims, defenses or the extent of damages sought.
- Expert witnesses are recommended for evidence that requires scientific, technical or other specialized knowledge.
- To require a witness to attend the hearing, go to the Clerk's office in Suite TG-100 or to the Court's website to obtain a Request for Subpoena form. The subpoena must be served or delivered to the witness.
- You may serve the subpoena through the Marshal or an approved private process server. Fees vary.

Hearsay Evidence

- Hearsay is evidence not based on direct personal knowledge or experience and is generally not admissible at trial.
- The Court cannot consider any statements (written or oral) of any person not present at trial. The person must appear in person to testify so that the opposing party can cross-examine (question) them. There are, however, limited exceptions when such evidence will be allowed.

Step 7: Trial

- Arrive early. Immediately before court starts, the case manager will call the calendar. This lets the court know who is present. Parties who miss the call of their case or name run the risk of having their case dismissed or a judgment entered against them.
- Parties may have an opportunity to mediate on the day of trial.
- Parties must exchange copies of documents to ensure each side is aware of the evidence that will be presented.
- As the Plaintiff, you present your case first. You have the burden of proving your case by a "preponderance of the evidence." In order to prevail, you must prove the greater weight of the evidence is in your favor.

- Once you complete your presentation, the Defendant presents its defense. Both parties may cross-examine the opposing party and any witnesses.
- If a counterclaim was filed, it will be heard following or with the initial case.
- At the end of the trial, each party may offer a closing argument where the parties summarize the facts in their favor.
- Following the presentation of evidence, the Judge will decide the case and issue a ruling. The Judge will let the parties know when the written order will be available.

Step 8: Appeals

- A Party dissatisfied with the judgment of the Court may appeal the decision to either the State or Superior Court by filing a Notice of Appeal with the Clerk no later than 30 days after the judgement is entered. The Notice of Appeal form can be found on the Court's website or in the Clerk's office in TG-100.
- The appealing party must send a copy of the Notice of Appeal to the opposing party and pay the filing fee within 20 days to the reviewing Court, which will hear the appeal.

RESOURCES-HELPFUL TOOLS

The Judges and staff cannot provide legal advice. Instead, try these:

Self-help Center, located in Suite TG-300, provides information and support services.

Law library, located on the 7th Floor of the Justice Center Tower, offers a place to conduct legal research and find information to assist with your case.

The Uniform Magistrate Court Rules can be found in the Law library or accessed through the Court's website. The Atlanta Legal Aid and the Atlanta Volunteer Lawyers Foundation offer attorney assistance in certain consumer matters. Their contact information is on the Court's website.

An Innovative, Efficient and Accessible Court

DISCLAIMER: The information in this pamphlet is not legal advice. It is intended to give a general overview of the procedures and forms used in the Fulton County Magistrate Court. Consult an attorney if you have specific questions about your case.

This pamphlet is for the person filing the lawsuit. You are the Plaintiff. The person you are suing is the Defendant. As the Plaintiff, you are responsible for how this matter moves through court. You must identify the correct Defendant, file the action, and serve the Defendant properly. The Defendant may choose to: 1) answer, 2) answer and file a counterclaim or 3) not answer. After completing your part, the court will schedule your case based on the defendant's response.

THE BASICS

Before the court can hear your small claims case, the case must meet requirements of jurisdiction and venue. Jurisdiction limits the Court's authority to hear the case and Venue ties the parties to the case and where they must be served.

The Court can hear civil cases where the amount of the dispute is $15,000.00 or less. Where you file depends on the type and location of the defendant:

- If an individual, you must file in the county where the Defendant lives.
- If Defendant is a company, you must file the claim in the county of the registered agent of the company. To locate the registered agent, contact the Corporations Division of the Georgia Secretary of State at 404-656-2817 or www.sos.ga.gov.
- Notices must be sent directly to the Defendant, unless the Defendant is a corporation.
- If Defendant is an unincorporated business, the claim must be filed in the county where the business is physically located.
- If Defendant is a partnership, the claim can be filed in the county in which at least one of the owners lives.

E-FILING

The Court requires parties to electronically file (E-File) documents into the court's case management system. You can register for e-filing and find your case using www.odysseyefilega.com. Once filed, you can file your case online using the check your status link on the court's website. You may e-file for free at the public access terminals in the Clerk's office, located in Suite TG-100 in the Justice Center Tower, or you may e-file from home for a fee.

SMALL CLAIMS PROCEDURE

Step 1: File Statement of Claim

- Plaintiff begins the lawsuit by e-filing a sworn Statement of Claim or Complaint.
- The Statement of Claim or Complaint must include the full name and address of the Defendant(s), as well as the reason for the lawsuit, and the damages claimed. You must attach a copy of all documents which support your claim (contracts, receipts, cancelled checks, etc.).
- If you write your own Complaint, you must attach a Notice and Summons form.
- The Statement of Claim must be notarized with a signature and seal OR its content sworn and affirmed by a deputy clerk.
- There is a fee to file your action. Please see the court's website for filing fees.
- The Court offers Free Form Generator, an interactive website to help guide you in writing your statement of claim or answer.

Step 2: Service of Process

- You must notify the Defendant of the lawsuit. This means serving a copy of the Statement of Claim or Complaint on each defendant. If there are multiple defendants, each must be served separately.
- This notice must be served (or delivered) by the Marshal's Department or by a court-approved process server.
- The fee to serve the defendant by the Marshal is on the court's website.

Step 3: Defendant's Answer

- The Defendant has 30 days from the date of being served to e-file an Answer.
- If the Defendant e-files a counterclaim (a claim against you), you must file an Answer within 30 days.

Step 4: Default

- If the Defendant fails to e-file an Answer within 30 days, the case goes into default. If the case remains in default after 45 days from when the Defendant was served, you may be entitled to a Default Judgment.
- The Court may schedule a hearing to determine the amount of money owed. However, if sufficient evidence is included with your Statement of Claim, the Court may enter judgment without a hearing.
- To request a Default Judgment, you must file a Request for Default with an Affidavit of Non-Military Service showing that the Defendant is not serving in the military.

Step 5: Mediation

- Mediation is an option for both parties and allows you to direct the outcome of the case by working with a neutral third person. If an agreement is reached, the case ends.
- If the parties cannot reach agreement, the case proceeds to trial.
- The Court offers mediation services for free.

Step 6: Getting Ready for Trial

- Trial is a hearing where both parties present evidence to a judge. Evidence may be presented to the court through documents or witness testimony.

DOCUMENTS

- Bring copies and originals of all documents which support your position to court. These may include contracts, work orders, service records, receipts, and cancelled checks. Keep the originals for your files.
- It is a good idea to bring extra copies of documents for the Court, any witnesses and the opposing party.
